IN THE MATTER OF PETER ROBINSON

PUBLIC

NOTICE OF FILING A PUBLIC REDACTED VERSION OF THE "REQUEST FOR ORDER TO THE REGISTRAR" DATED 13-SEPTEMBER 2022

Amicus Curiae

Mr. Kenneth Scott

Mr. Peter Robinson

The Amicus Curiae ("Amicus") respectfully submits, as an annex to the present filing, a public redacted version of his "Request for Order to the Registrar" dated 13-September-2022.

1. On 22-May-2025, the Single Judge issued the "Decision on Amicus Curiae's Motion in Relation to Material from Other Cases" ("Decision").¹ In the Decision, the Single Judge, among others, granted Peter Robinson's request for reclassification of a decision from confidential and ex parte to public, and of the related motion from confidential and ex parte to confidential, ² noting that Amicus mentioned that he would file a public redacted version of the motion.³

2. Indeed, Amicus submitted, in response to Robinson's request, that he should be allowed the opportunity to file a public redacted version of the Motion, which referred to the content of confidential filings, in the event that Robinson's request is granted.⁴ The public redacted version of the Motion is included in annex to the present Notice.

ANNEX: PUBLIC REDACTED VERSION OF "REQUEST FOR ORDER TO THE REGISTRAR" DATED 13-SEPTEMBER 2022

Amicus Curiae

Mr. Kenneth Scott

The Amicus Curiae ("Amicus") respectfully requests the Single Judge to order the Registrar to provide information in the Registry's possession concerning the external communication capabilities allowed to Augustin Ngirabatware and their legal and proper use from within the United Nations Detention Facility ("UNDF") during the time of his detention there, as detailed below.

1. This motion is filed confidentially and ex parte, as it concerns an ongoing investigation and publication of its content would disclose (and possibly compromise) the nature and direction of this part of Amicus' investigation.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2. On 20-December-2012, Augustin Ngirabatware was convicted of direct and public incitement to commit genocide, and of instigating and aiding and abetting genocide.¹

3. On 18-December-2014, the Appeals Chamber affirmed Ngirabatware's convictions.²

4. On 27-September-2019, the Appeals Chamber issued its Judgement in the Review case, No. MICT-12-29-R ("Review Judgement"), concluding that Ngirabatware had not presented sufficient evidence to prove the existence of a new fact in relation to his convictions for direct and public incitement to commit genocide and instigating and aiding and abetting genocide.³

5. On 25-June-2021, Judge Vagn Joensen, the Single Judge in the case titled The Prosecutor v. Anselme Nzabonimpa et al., No. MICT-18-116-T, found Augustin Ngirabatware and others guilty of interference with the administration of justice (the "Contempt Judgement").⁴ The accused were charged with, and convicted of interference with the

³ Prosecutor v. Augustin Ngirabatware, No. MICT-12-29-R, Review Judgement, 27-September-2019.

⁴ The Judge acquitted Dick Prudence Munyeshuli but issued a warning to him to closely scrutinize applicable witness protection measures in future cases. administration of justice for conduct related to the review proceedings in No. MICT-12-29-R, more specifically, violations of courts orders and/or interference related to witnesses who testified during the proceedings.⁵

6. On 20-September-2021, Judge Joensen issued an Order Referring a Matter to the Mechanism President, in which he stated that there is reason to believe that Mr Peter Robinson, former counsel for Augustin Ngirabatware, may be in contempt of the Mechanism. Judge Joensen referred the matter to the President of the Mechanism "so that another Single Judge can independently assess whether or not further proceedings under Rule 90 . . . or other appropriate disciplinary action against Robinson, including denial of audience before the Mechanism, is warranted" ("Referral Order").⁶

7. On 8-October-2021, the President appointed Judge José Ricardo de Prada Solaesa as the Single Judge to assess whether contempt proceedings or other appropriate disciplinary action against Mr. Peter Robinson are warranted.⁷

8. On 25-October-2021, Judge de Prada Solaesa, in light of "the broad nature of the Single Judge's recommendation in the [Referral] Order of 20-September-2021" and the potential conflict of interest of the Mechanism's Prosecutor, ordered the Registrar to appoint an Amicus Curiae to investigate the matters raised ("Order to Appoint Amicus").⁸

9. On 30-November-2021, the Registrar appointed Mr. Kenneth Scott as Amicus.⁹

10. On 29-June-2022, the Appeals Chamber in the Fatuma et al. case, No. MICT-18-116-A, dismissed in its entirety Marie Rose Fatuma's appeal against the Contempt Judgement. The Appeals Chamber granted the Prosecution's appeal against the sentence imposed on Augustin Ngirabatware and imposed a sentence of two years of consecutive imprisonment. The Appeals Chamber set aside Marie Rose Fatuma's sentence of "time served" and imposed a sentence of eleven months' imprisonment. The Appeals Chamber reversed Dick Prudence Munyeshuli's acquittal and imposed a sentence of five months' imprisonment.¹⁰

SUBMISSIONS

11. The Order to Appoint Amicus mandates Amicus to investigate, among other things, whether Peter Robinson was "having unauthorized communication with Ngirabatware".¹¹ It cites Judge Joensen's Referral Order stating that such communications occurred "through contraband communication devices and through means prohibited by the regulations of the United Nations Detention Facility".¹² Judge Joensen referred to evidence suggesting that Ngirabatware and Robinson were communicating with each other via emails to and from the UNDF, while Ngirabatware was detained there, and cited a regulation on communications with detainees prohibiting the importation of contraband such as mobile phones.¹³

12. Two laptops and two mobile telephones were seized from Ngirabatware at the UNDF on 31-May-2018 and 7-February-2019.¹⁴ The Contempt Judgement states that Ngirabatware had "possession of contraband communication devices within the UNDF until they were seized from him".¹⁵ Judge Joensen determined that the mobiles phones possessed by Ngirabatware

¹² Order to Appoint Amicus, p.2, referring to the Referral Order, pp.2-3.

¹³ Referral Order, fn.11. Judge Joensen cited Regulation 2(A)(iii) of the Regulations on the Supervision of Visits to and Communications with Detainees, MICT/23, 5-December-2018, stating that it shall be an offence under these regulations to import contraband "such as mobile telephones and other communications devices or breaching these Regulations, the Rules of Detention or any other regulations rules, or guidelines relating to detention matters issued by the Mechanism".

at the UNDF constituted contraband, adding: "Any potentially privileged information put on these devices or exchanges [communications] made through them cannot enjoy privilege provided by law. The protections of privilege do not extend to contraband."¹⁶

13. In this context, Amicus seeks information from the Registrar regarding Ngirabatware's legal or allowed ability to use devices from within the UNDF to access the internet and send and receive emails from 1-June-2015 until and including 19-December-2017 (when Robinson's motion to withdraw as Ngirabatware's counsel was granted).¹⁷ In the event that Ngirabatware was allowed, in any way (either by de jure or de facto arrangements or practices), to send or receive emails during that time, Amicus asks the Registrar to address such allowed usage, and specifically Ngirabatware's allowed usage of personal devices, including mobile telephones, giving him the ability to send and receive emails to and from the UNDF at the time.

14. Obtaining the requested information will substantially assist Amicus to fulfill his mandate, in determining whether Ngirabatware and Robinson exchanged emails by or through contraband devices or prohibited means or practices.¹⁸

15. In a publicly-issued Decision of 7-February-2019 in the Nzabonimpa et al. case, Judge Joensen stated that on 22-January-2019, "the Prosecution filed a confidential and ex parte

¹⁶ Prosecutor v. Nzabonimpa et al., Case Nos. MICT-18-116-PT & MICT-12-29-R, Decision on the 7 February 2019 Search at the United Nations Detention Facility, 5-July-2019, para.28 ("Decision on the 7-February-2019 Search").

¹⁸ Dick Prudence Munyeshuli testified that there was a "channel of communication" by email between Ngirabatware and his Defence team. See Prosecutor v. Nzabonimpa et al., Case No. MICT-18-116-T, transcript of Dick Prudence Munuyeshuli's testimony, 8-April-2021, p.39, 1.21 to p.40, Q. And you can also confirm that Mr. Ngirabatware himself was also reachable via email, at WhatsApp and SMS, and you, the members of his review team Defence, knew that; right? A. I knew that there was a channel of communication, that is email. As to other means of communication, I was unaware of them. Q. All right. And Peter Robinson was also in communication with Mr. Ngirabatware via these other manners, right, by email, you know that? A. I was not aware at the time but today I am." Munyeshuli also testified that he himself received two emails from Ngirabatware and that it was the first time he received correspondence from a detainee at the UNDF. Transcript of 8 April 2021, p.88, 1.20 to p.89, 1.18.

motion seeking, inter alia, access to records and/or information from the Registrar pertaining to (...) the sources of and technical capabilities of laptops or other electronic devices accessible to the Turinabo et al. Accused and Ngirabatware that are [were] capable of being used for communication and what if any facilities were available for use of the internet." After seeking and receiving submissions from the Registrar "in view of his supervisory responsibilities concerning detention at the UNDF", Judge Joensen determined "that the information and materials sought did not implicate attorney-client privilege," and found it appropriate to grant the Prosecution access to the requested material and information.¹⁹ The Decision of 7-February-2019 demonstrates that the Registrar is clearly in a position to provide the information sought by this request. Further and importantly, this previous litigation and experience indicates that, in order to obtain the requested information, an order to the Registrar is required, [REDACTED]²⁰

16. Amicus also seeks information from the Registrar concerning Ngirabatware's legal or allowed ability to own and/or use personal mobile phones while being detained at the UNDF. If Ngirabatware was allowed to have and/or use a mobile phone in any way, the Registrar should inform Amicus of the specific conditions and circumstances under which such ownership and use was allowed. While the two mobile phones seized from Ngirabatware apparently constituted contraband, the requested information will allow Amicus to determine whether any use of a personal mobile phone by a person detained at the UNDF was prohibited or allowed.

17. It is not sufficient for Amicus to simply have access to relevant UNDF or Registry rules or regulations concerning the above matters, as Amicus, in assessing Mr Robinson's conduct, must consider (and determine) whether there might have been de facto practices, conduct or allowances which provided for or allowed Ngirabatware and Robinson to engage in communications at issue in the investigation.

¹⁹ Decision on the 7-February-2019 Search, paras.4-5.

²⁰ [REDACTED] Amicus was ordered, in relation to the material from Case No. MICT-18-116-T to which he gained access : "to safeguard the confidentiality of all information and material designated as confidential and/or ex parte and only disclose such information or material when strictly necessary for the conduct of the Investigation and provided that he obtains assurances under the threat of criminal sanctions that any party or person receiving such information or material for the purposes of the Investigation will strictly maintain its confidentiality." Prosecutor v. Fatuma et al., Case No. MICT-18-116-A, Decision on Amicus Curiae's Motion for Access and Requests for Clarification and Variation of Protective Measures, 21-January-2022, p.5. This request discloses confidential information to the Single Judge as "strictly necessary" to the investigation.

18. Finally, Amicus asks the Registrar to produce official documentation showing the dates (inclusive) during which Ngirabatware was detained at the UNDF in Arusha, Tanzania.

19. Amicus respectfully submits that there is no reason why Ngirabatware (or others) should be heard in relation to this request. Investigations are conducted confidentially, and Amicus is not requesting information regarding any particular communication (or content of any communication) by Ngirabatware or others. The information sought only concerns the UNDF's allowed communication practices and devices during the time that Ngirabatware was detained at the UNDF and what, if any, allowed usage was granted to Ngirabatware at the time.

RELIEF SOUGHT

For the reasons stated herein, Amicus respectfully requests the Single Judge to order the Registrar to provide:

(1) Detailed information regarding what, if any, facilities and devices for internet access and email communications were allowed to Augustin Ngirabatware while detained at the UNDF in Tanzania, starting from 1-June-2015 and continuing to 19-December-2017. If any such facilities and/or devices or related communications were allowed, Amicus seeks detailed information concerning the conditions and limitations, if any, on such possession and use;

(2) Detailed information regarding Ngirabatware's legal or allowed possession and use of personal mobile phones while being detained at the UNDF. If any such possession or use was allowed, Amicus seeks detailed information concerning the conditions and limitations imposed on such possession and use; and

(3) Official documentation showing the dates (inclusive) during which Ngirabatware was detained at the UNDF in Arusha, Tanzania.
