Organizational setting and Reporting:
This position is located in the Finance Section, Registry of the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals (IRMCT), The Hague, under the supervision of the Chief Finance Officer.

Responsibilities:
Under the supervision of the Chief Finance Officer, the incumbent is responsible for the daily operations of the Payroll and Payments Unit, ensures accurate and complete accounting is maintained, the relevant records are reconciled and the internal control system is functioning. The duties include review and approval of the financial statements and its related schedules and footnotes. Provides authoritative advice and guidance regarding the United Nations’ financial regulations, rules, policies, and procedures. Acts as approving officer for the recording of obligations, payments and other entries in the accounting system. Analyses and monitors the status of allotments, obligations, expenditures, accounts receivable and accounts payables. Provides support to substantive services on accounting matters. Drafts replies to the audit observations and recommends changes in the manual and automated accounting procedures related to the functional unit. Supervises staff in the Payroll and Payments Unit. Provides authoritative advice on IPSAS application and ensures compliance with Umoja (SAP) processes. Acts as Officer-in-Charge during the absence of the Chief Finance Officer. Performs other duties as required.

Core Competencies:
- Professionalism – proven conceptual, analytical, and evaluative skills; ability to conduct independent research and analysis, identifying issues, formulating options, and making conclusions and recommendations; and a complete, in-depth grasp of financial principles and practice. Knowledge of IPSAS, ERP and experience with both will be advantageous. Shows pride in work and in achievements; demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter; is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results; is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns; shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges; remains calm in stressful situations.

- Teamwork – Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organisational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others’ ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

- Planning and Organising – Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently.

Managerial Competencies:
- Managing Performance – Delegates the appropriate responsibility, accountability and decision-making authority; makes sure that roles, responsibilities and reporting lines are clear to each staff member; accurately judges the amount of time and resources needed to accomplish a task and matches task to skills; monitors progress against milestones and deadlines; regularly discusses performance and provides feedback and coaching to staff; encourages risk-taking and supports creativity and initiative; actively supports the development and career aspirations of staff; appraises performance fairly.

- Judgement/Decision-making – Identifies the key issues in a complex situation, and comes to the heart of the problem quickly; gathers relevant information before making a decision; considers positive and negative impacts of decisions prior to making them; takes decisions with an eye to the impact on others and on the Organisation; proposes a course of action or makes a recommendation based on all available information; checks assumptions against facts; determines that the actions proposed will satisfy the expressed and underlying needs for the decision; makes tough decisions when necessary.

United Nations Considerations
According to article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations, the paramount consideration in the employment of the staff is the necessity of securing the highest standards of efficiency, competence, and integrity. Candidates will not be considered for employment with the United Nations if they have committed violations of international human rights law, violations of international humanitarian law, sexual exploitation or sexual abuse, or crimes other than minor traffic offences, or if there are reasonable grounds to believe that they have been involved in the commission of any of these acts. The term “sexual exploitation” means any actual or attempted abuse of a position of vulnerability, differential power, or trust, for sexual purposes, including, but not limited to, profiting monetarily, socially or politically from the sexual exploitation of another. The term “sexual abuse” means the actual or threatened physical intrusion of a sexual nature, whether by force or under unequal or coercive conditions.

Due regard will be paid to the importance of recruiting the staff on as wide a geographical basis as possible. The United Nations places no restrictions on the eligibility of men and women to participate in any capacity and under conditions of equality in its principal and subsidiary organs. The United Nations Secretariat is a non-smoking environment.

Applicants are urged to follow carefully all instructions available in the online recruitment platform, inspira. For more detailed guidance, applicants may refer to the Manual for the Applicant, which can be accessed by clicking on “Manuals” hyper-link on the upper right side of the inspira account-holder homepage.

The evaluation of applicants will be conducted on the basis of the information submitted in the application according to the evaluation criteria of the job opening and the applicable internal legislations of the United Nations including the Charter of the United Nations, resolutions of the General Assembly, the Staff Regulations and Rules, administrative issuances and guidelines.
